JERRY REINSDORF

CHAIRMAN

During his 30-plus year tenure as chairman of the Chicago White Sox, Jerry Reinsdorf's two professional sports teams – the White Sox and Chicago Bulls – have delivered seven World Championship titles to the city of Chicago and its fans.

Fulfilling a dream that began as a baseball fan growing up in Brooklyn during the 1930s and 1940s, Reinsdorf accepted the Commissioner's Trophy from Bud Selig on October 26, 2005, after the White Sox swept their way to the team's first World Series Championship since 1917.

The championship was the first by a Chicago baseball team in 88 years and was celebrated by a ticker-tape parade, attended by nearly 2 million Chicagoans, that ran from U.S. Cellular Field through many of the city's neighborhoods and finished in downtown Chicago. At the rally, first baseman Paul Konerko presented Reinsdorf with the ball from the final out of Game 4 of the World Series.

The White Sox have reached the postseason five times during Reinsdorf's tenure, most recently in 2008 when they captured the American Central Division title in a one-game playoff. The Sox also claimed division titles in 1983, 1993, 2000 and 2005.

Reinsdorf begins his 37th season as chairman of the White Sox in 2017, having surpassed club founder Charles Comiskey (1900-31) for the longest ownership tenure in franchise history. The Sox have gone 2,903-2,803 (.509) during Reinsdorf's 36 seasons, and every one of the club's Top 20 single-season attendance totals have come during Reinsdorf's tenure, including a franchise-record 2.95 million fans in 2006.

Reinsdorf and the White Sox have received four prestigious honors over the past few years in recognition of the franchise's ongoing commitment to giving back to the community. In June 2011, Reinsdorf traveled to Washington D.C. to accept the Jefferson Award, one of the nation's top honors for community service and volunteerism, known as the "Nobel Prize for Public Service."

In August 2011, Reinsdorf received the Barnes and Thornburg Jackie Robinson Award for diversity in the workplace, and in November 2011, Reinsdorf and the White Sox were honored by Commissioner Bud Selig with the Commissioner's Award for Philanthropic Excellence for the club's Volunteer Corps. In September 2012, Reinsdorf and the White Sox were again recognized nationally, receiving the Steve Patterson Award for Excellence in sports philanthropy for the team's Volunteer Corps program.

In response to President Barack Obama's inauguration-day call to service, Reinsdorf and the White Sox created the White Sox Volunteer Corps in 2009 to support the Chicagoland community through service. The Corps, now consisting of staff, players and over 4,650 fan volunteers, has mobilized to provide more than 41,500 hours of community service during its seven years of existence, including work renovating Chicago Public Schools, remodeling local Boys & Girls Clubs and donating time at the Greater Chicago Food Depository.

In September 2016, Reinsdorf was named to the Naismith Basketball Hall of Fame Class of 2016 in Springfield, Mass. He became the 10th NBA owner to be honored as an inductee.

Both of Reinsdorf's sports franchises have donated millions of dollars to causes in the Chicago community through a variety of efforts, including Chicago White Sox Charities and Chicago Bulls Charities. Chicago White Sox Charities has donated more than $14.5 million to Chicagoland organizations in the past eight years, moving the team's non-profit arm to more than $27 million in cumulative giving since its inception.

In 2017, the White Sox will host the 10th annual "Double Duty Classic," a high school baseball All-Star Game featuring many of the nation's top inner-city baseball players. The Classic, named for Negro League great Ted "Double Duty" Radcliffe, celebrates the community's pride in the Negro League East-West All-Star Games, held annually at Comiskey Park in Chicago from the 1930s until the 1960s, while a symposium before the game teaches players about the game's history and importance.

Reinsdorf and the White Sox created the Amateur City Elite (ACE) youth baseball program in 2007. Sponsored by Chicago White Sox Charities, ACE provides urban-based and largely minority youth the opportunity to play in a high-quality travel baseball program. In its eight years, ACE has had 18 players drafted and over 143 players sign scholarships to play college baseball. ACE alumni have won NCAA Championships, have been drafted as high as the first round (fifth pick overall), and other alumni have returned for front office jobs within the White Sox organization.

In recognition of his life-long commitment to promoting diversity, Reinsdorf's White Sox hosted Major League Baseball's 2013 Diversity Summit in Chicago, and the franchise also was chosen to host the annual Civil Rights Game and Beacon Awards Luncheon in August 2014.

Reinsdorf has been responsible for the construction of two new sports facilities in Chicago, Comiskey Park (1991), now Guaranteed Rate Field, and the United Center (1994). The White Sox and Los Angeles Dodgers opened a state-of-the-art spring training complex, named Camelback Ranch — Glendale, in Phoenix in 2009.

For much of the past decade, Reinsdorf, the White Sox and the Illinois Sports Facilities Authority have undertaken dramatic offseason renovations to Guaranteed Rate Field with the goal of improving the ballpark experience for White Sox fans. In 2016, three new, state-of-the-art video boards, including a center field board that measures 60 feet by 134 feet, were installed in the ballpark.

OFFICERS

Since heading the limited partnership that purchased the White Sox in January 1981, Reinsdorf has been involved in Major League Baseball initiatives at an industry-wide level. Currently, he serves on the Major League Baseball Business and Media Board.

In the past he has served on many other committees, including Major League Baseball's Executive Council, Player Relations, Relocation, Ownership & Legislative and Long-Range Labor Planning. He was instrumental in the formation of the Diverse Business Partners (DBP) Program in 1998. Since then, Major League Baseball and its clubs have purchased hundreds of millions of dollars in goods and services from minority and women-owned businesses, and the White Sox annually rank among baseball's leaders in the DBP program. In 2008, his long history of donating time to Major League Baseball led to Reinsdorf being asked to serve on the Board of The Baseball Hall of Fame. White Sox great Frank Thomas and former manager Tony La Russa were inducted as members of the Hall of Fame's Class of 2014, and former White Sox Tim Lincecum is set to be inducted in July 2017.

Reinsdorf expanded his involvement in professional sports in March 1985 by purchasing controlling interest in the Chicago Bulls. During his tenure as chairman of the Bulls, the team has captured six World Championships (1991-93, '96-98). In addition to initiating the building of new Comiskey Park, Reinsdorf initiated construction of three major facilities for the Bulls.

The United Center, home for the Bulls and Chicago Blackhawks, opened for the 1994-95 season, the Sheri L. Berto Center served as the Bulls training facility from 1992-2014, and the Advocate Center, which opened in 2014 and now serves as the Bulls practice and training facility in downtown Chicago.

Reinsdorf has played a critical role in the development of the west side area surrounding the United Center and was responsible for introducing an innovative reading program to the Chicago Public Schools. Through the Chicago Bulls/ Sox Training Academy, which opened in 2001, and outreach efforts such as White Sox Training Centers and Chicago Bulls Basketball Schools, Reinsdorf's franchises promote sports to thousands of youth each year while instilling a love of the game in future fans. Reinsdorf's life-long support for charitable and community organizations has resulted in numerous other awards and recognitions.

In 2009, Reinsdorf co-founded Silver Chalice Ventures, a next generation, digital sports media company that owns and operates digital networks 120 Sports, Campus Insiders and the ACC Digital Network.

Born in Brooklyn, N.Y. on February 25, 1936, Reinsdorf graduated from George Washington University in Washington D.C. and earned a law degree from Northwestern University after moving to Chicago in 1957. Reinsdorf and his wife, Martyl, have four children and eight grandchildren.

HOWARD PIZER

SENIOR EXECUTIVE VICE PRESIDENT

Howard Pizer begins his 37th season with the White Sox after being promoted to the position of senior executive vice president by Jerry Reinsdorf on October 26, 2012.

Pizer, who attends Major League Baseball owners' meetings on the club's behalf, has primary responsibility for the business and administrative operations of the White Sox as well as continuing oversight of the club's legal matters and governmental relations. The 40-plus-year business associate of Jerry Reinsdorf joined the White Sox in 1981 to handle the club's transition from former owner Bill Veeck to the Reinsdorf-Einhorn group. He served as the club's executive vice president from 1981-2012.

During his 36-year tenure with the White Sox, Pizer has supervised the franchise's hosting of two Major League All-Star Games (1983 and 2003), the team's five postseason appearances (1983, 1993, 1999, 2005 and 2008), and the 2005 World Series, the first won by a Chicago baseball team in 88 years.

Prior to its opening on April 18, 1991, Pizer's primary focus was on the necessary steps to create new Comiskey Park, now Guaranteed Rate Field. He utilized this experience in connection with the development and operation of the United Center, the state-of-the-art facility which opened for the 1994-95 Chicago Bulls and Chicago Blackhawks season. He also was instrumental in the development of the Advocate Center, the new Bulls training center located next to the United Center. Pizer is the White Sox chief liaison with the Illinois Sports Facilities Authority (ISFA), the state agency that serves as owner of Guaranteed Rate Field.

Pizer is responsible for the overall relationships between the White Sox and their concessionaires, Illinois Sportservice, and Levy Restaurants, and he annually has spearheaded the club's ongoing efforts to improve the ballpark experience for fans attending games Guaranteed Rate Field.

Pizer lends his organizational ability to the board of directors of Chicago Baseball Cancer Charities; Special Children's Charities, the fundraising arm of Chicago Special Olympics; Local Initiatives Support Corporation/Chicago Board of Advisors; and Near West Side Community Development Corp., which is working to spur affordable housing and economic development on Chicago's near west side. The Chicago native also is an active participant in White Sox Volunteer Corps community service events, as well as the club's support of community efforts to develop the Wentworth Gardens and Bronzeville areas near the ballpark. Pizer also serves as vice president and secretary for Chicago White Sox Charities.

Born on October 23, 1941, in Chicago, Ill., Pizer is a graduate of the University of Wisconsin. He is also a magna cum laude graduate of the Northwestern University School of Law. Pizer and his wife, Sheila, have two children: Jacqueline and Rachel; and four grandchildren.

KEN WILLIAMS

EXECUTIVE VICE PRESIDENT

Ken Williams begins his 36th season in baseball in 2017 and his fifth as executive vice president after being promoted to the position on October 26, 2012. In his present role, Williams has increased the scope and range of his involvement with the club while continuing to maintain oversight and final approval on major baseball decisions. He also attends Major League Baseball owners' meetings on the club's behalf.

This past offseason, the baseball department's executive team of Williams and general manager Rick Hahn began a long-term process to refocus the White Sox organization toward an emphasis on youth, development and sustained winning. First, the club named Rick Renteria as its new manager on October 3, and then in consecutive days at the winter meetings on December 6-7, the White Sox acquired seven key prospects in two separate trades, adding INF Yoan Moncada, the No. 1-ranked prospect in minor league baseball from the Boston Red Sox for LHP Chris Sale, before then acquiring three talented young pitchers, including top-ranked RHP Lucas Gileto, from the Washington Nationals for OF Adam Eaton.

Williams played a key role in the White Sox scouting and signing of free agent Cuban first baseman Jose Abreu prior to the 2014 season. Abreu, who signed a six-year, $68-million contract, the largest player contract ever given by the White Sox, was named American League Rookie of the Year in 2014.

Williams spent 12 seasons (2001-12) as the White Sox general manager, producing the best winning percentage by any general manager in club history. The White Sox claimed a World Series Championship in 2005 – the franchise's first in 88 years – two division titles (2005 and 2008), five second-place finishes and four third-place finishes. The club finished .500 or better nine times, going 1,014-931 (.521) over his 12 seasons.

Williams celebrated his fifth season as general manager in 2005 by winning the third World Series title in the franchise's history and the club's first since 1917. The 2005 World Champion White Sox became just the second team in major-league history to lead its division wire-to-wire and sweep the World Series in four games. The other was the 1927 New York Yankees. The Sox were 11-1 in postseason play, winning their final eight games.

Following the 2005 World Series Championship, the 2006 White Sox posted a 90-72 record, winning 90 or more games in back-to-back seasons for just the fifth time in franchise history and first since 1963-65.

The 2008 White Sox became the second team to capture an AL Central division title during Williams' tenure. The 2008 Sox won 89-74 (.546) to win the AL Central title by defeating the Twins in a tiebreaker on September 30. The 1-0 victory over Minnesota was the third of three straight must-win games against three different teams to end the regular season.

Prior to the 2005 championship season, the White Sox signed five free agents – OF Jermaine Dye, RHP Dustin Hermanson, RHP Orlando Hernandez, Japanese INF Tadahito Iguchi and C A.J. Pierzynski – and each played a key role in helping the team to the World Series title. The Sox also acquired OF Scott Podsednik and RHP Luis Vizcaino in a December 13 trade with the Brewers. In 2004, Williams signed RHP Shingo Takatsu, Japan's all-time saves leader, who was the first Japanese player for the White Sox. In 2003, the Sox signed free agent RHP Esteban Loaiza, who went on to win 21 games and started the 2003 All-Star Game at U.S. Cellular Field.

During his tenure, Williams acquired 171 players in 72 trades involving the major-league roster. His teams included four Cuban players, Jose Contreras, Orlando Hernandez (2005), Alexei Ramirez (2008-15) and Dayan Viciedo (2010-14), and two Japanese players (Tadahito Iguchi and Shingo Takatsu). In 2005, Iguchi became the first Japanese player in baseball history to win a World Series title.

From 2001-03, Williams and Jerry Manuel formed the first African-American general manager/manager tandem in major-league history. He was honored at the McDonald's 365Black Awards in July 2013 as one of the nation's history makers of today and tomorrow.

Williams has spent 34 seasons in baseball in a variety of capacities, including player, scout and special assistant to the chairman. He joined the club in November 1992 as a scout, specializing in the inner cities, and was named special assistant to Jerry Reinsdorf in 1994.

He served as director of minor-league operations from 1995-96 and vice president of player development from 1997-2000. Under his direction, the Sox were named 2000 Organization of the Year by Baseball America and USA Today.

RICK HAHN

SENIOR VICE PRESIDENT/GENERAL MANAGER

Rick Hahn, who begins his fifth season as the club's general manager, has been with the White Sox since October 2000 and helped build the 2005 World Series Champion and 2008 postseason teams. The Chicago native was named the club's senior vice president/general manager on October 26, 2012, and his duties include oversight of all player personnel matters, coaching staff decisions and the club's player development and scouting operations.

This offseason, the baseball department's executive team of Executive Vice President Ken Williams and Hahn began a long-term process to refocus the White Sox organization toward an emphasis on youth, development and sustained winning. As the team's first offseason move, Hahn named Rick Renteria the new White Sox manager on October 3. With the selection of Renteria and the promotion of Nick Capra (third base coach) and Curt Hasler (bullpen), every member of the White Sox coaching staff in 2017 has lengthy player development experience.

In consecutive days at the winter meetings December 6-7 in National Harbor, Md., the White Sox acquired seven key prospects in two separate trades. Hahn first added INF Yoan Moncada, Baseball America's Minor League Player of the Year in 2016, OF Luis Alexander Basabe, RHP Michael Kopech and RHP Victor Diaz from the Boston Red Sox for LHP Chris Sale. He then acquired top-ranked RHP Lucas Giolito, RHP Reynaldo Lopez and RHP Dane Dunning from the Washington Nationals for OF Adam Eaton the next day.

The White Sox enter the 2017 season as the only major-league franchise with three players – Moncada #2, Giolito #12 and Kopech #16 – ranked among mlb.com's Top 20 Prospects, and with six of the Top 100 prospects, the White Sox rank third among all 30 franchises. Lopez (#46), Carson Fulmer (#71) and Zack Collins (#81), one of the club's first round picks from the 2016 First-Year Player Draft, complete the list of Sox players in mlb.com's Top 100. Of the six, only Fulmer was in the organization on Opening Day 2016.

Rookie SS Tim Anderson, the club's first round pick in 2013, made his major-league debut on June 10, 2016 at Detroit and ended the season with the sixth-highest batting average (.283) of any White Sox rookie since 1965 (when the draft began). Anderson joined Carlos Rodon (2014) and Fulmer (2015) as White Sox first-round selections to appear with the team in 2016. Collins (10th overall) and Zack Burdi (26th), both 2016 White Sox first-rounders are two of the 10 players in camp this spring who were selected by the club in the first three rounds of the draft.

The White Sox made international headlines on October 29, 2013 when Hahn signed free agent Cuban first baseman Jose Abreu to a six-year, $68-million contract, the largest player contract ever given by the White Sox. Abreu was named to the American League All-Star Team in 2014, led all of baseball in slugging percentage, won a Silver Slugger Award and unanimously was awarded the BBWAA AL Rookie of the Year Award. In 2015, Abreu became just the second player in history to hit 30-plus home runs with 100 or more RBI in each of his first two major-league seasons, joining only Albert Pujols. In 2016, Abreu became the seventh player in major-league history to record 100-plus RBI in each of his first three seasons.

Under Hahn's supervision, the White Sox have expanded the baseball operations department, increasing the staff with several new positions. In 2016, Hahn named Chris Getz, a former Sox second baseman, as director of player development. Hahn promoted Nick Hostetler to director of amateur scouting in August 2015 and also added Jim Thome to the organization in July 2013, naming the popular former slugger a special assistant.

Hahn has traveled to the Dominican Republic multiple times as the White Sox signed several Latin American free agents behind the international scouting of Marco Paddy, Doug Laumann and Hostetler. The Sox signed OF Micker Adolfo (Zapata), the No. 2 ranked international prospect by MLB in 2013, to a $1.6 million contract and followed up annually with signings of top prospects SS Amado Nunez (2014), OF Franklin Reyes (2015) and OF Josue Guerrero (2016), among others.

During his 12 seasons as White Sox vice president/assistant general manager, Hahn worked with Williams on roster composition, player acquisitions, talent evaluations and contract negotiations. Since joining the organization, Hahn has negotiated numerous multiyear contracts, including with current Sox players Abreu, OF Melky Cabrera, RHP Nate Jones, LHP Jose Quintana and RHP David Robertson.

Hahn has been credited with playing a key role in moves such as signing eventual Cy Young Award runner-up Esteban Loaiza to a minor-league deal prior to the 2003 season, the waiver claim of Bobby Jenks prior to the 2005 World Series championship season, the 2007 acquisition of Most Valuable Player-candidate Carlos Quentin, the evaluation and signing of 2009 Rookie of the Year Gordon Beckham, and the signing of Chris Sale, the club's 2011 first-round pick and a five-time All-Star with the White Sox. Prior to joining the White Sox, Hahn spent two years as an associate at Steinberg, Moorad & Dunn, a sports agency based in Newport Beach, Calif., representing more than 150 athletes from Major League Baseball, the National Football League and the National Basketball Association.

Hahn is active in the organization's community outreach efforts as he has met with the organization's Amateur City Elite (ACE) youth baseball teams and volunteered his time serving meals to families at the Ronald McDonald House in downtown Chicago. Hahn is a native of Winnetka, Ill. and a graduate of New Trier High School, the University of Michigan, Harvard Law School, and Northwestern's Kellogg Graduate School of Management. He and his wife, Jean, have two children: Jacob and Charlie.

Haven't Seen That Before

Kansas City and the White Sox both hit leadoff home runs in the first and second innings on August 17, 2006 at U.S. Cellular Field, which according to the Elias Sports Bureau was the first time in major-league history that feat has been accomplished. David DeJesus and Emil Brown homered leading off the first two innings for the Royals, while Pablo Ozuna (first) and Jermaine Dye (second) went deep for the Sox. The previous time a White Sox game featured leadoff home runs in the first inning was on June 13, 2001 vs. Cincinnati (Brady Clark and Ray Durham).

2016 REVIEW

Todd Frazier ranked sixth in the American League in 2016 with a career-high 40 home runs, a franchise record for third basemen.

Notes: Chicago completed the ALDS sweep with a 5-3 win at Fenway Park ... Paul Konerko broke a 2-2 tie with a two-run homer off Tim Wakefield in the sixth inning ... Manny Ramirez led off Boston's sixth with a solo homer, his second of the game, and the Red Sox then loaded the bases with no outs off Damaso Marte ... however, Orlando "El Duque" Hernandez (3.0 scoreless IP) worked out of the inherited jam by retiring Jason Varitek and Tony Graffanino on popups before striking out Johnny Damon to end the threat ... the Sox added an insurance run in the ninth inning on a suicide squeeze bunt by Juan Urbie, and rookie Bobby Jenks pitched a 1-2-3 ninth for his second save of the series.

Orlando "El Duque" Hernandez threw 3.0 scoreless IP in relief in Game 3 of the ALDS at Fenway Park. With Chicago holding a 4-3 lead in the seventh inning, Hernandez inherited a bases-loaded, no-out situation but worked out of the jam by retiring Jason Varitek and Tony Graffanino on popups before striking out Johnny Damon on a 3-2 count to end the threat. The White Sox went on to post a 6-3 victory and complete the three-game sweep of the defending World Champion Red Sox.

GAME 3: WHITE SOX 5, ANGELS 2

Notes: Jon Garland pitched a four-hitter, and Paul Konerko hit a two-run homer as the White Sox beat Los Angeles, 5-2, to take a 2-1 lead in the ALCS ... Garland, who had not pitched since 10/1, tossed Chicago's second straight complete game, following Mark Buehrle's five-hitter in Game 2 ... the White Sox scored three runs in the first inning on Jermaine Dye's run-scoring single and Paul Konerko's (3-4, HR, 3 RBI) two-run homer off John Lackey ... Chicago's first four batters combined for eight of the 11 hits ... Orlando Cabrera hit a two-run shot in the sixth, the only blemish on Garland's pitching line.

GAME 4: WHITE SOX 8, ANGELS 2

Notes: Freddy Garcia nearly duplicated Mark Buehrle's five-hitter and Jon Garland's four-hitter, making the White Sox the first team to pitch three straight complete games in the postseason since the 1973 New York Mets (Tom Seaver, Jon Matlack and Jerry Koosman) ... Garcia, who was pitching for the first time since clinching the ALDS, gave up two early runs while striking out five ... A.J. Pierzynski homered for the White Sox, his third of the postseason, and Joe Crede added a two-run single in the eighth off Esteban Yan ... Paul Konerko homered in the first inning for the second straight game ... Chicago scored seven runs in the first innings of the series.

Pierzynski reached first on Escobar's error in the eighth, Crede's slow roller up the middle plated Rowand with the go-ahead run ... Paul Konerko, who was named the series MVP, added a RBI double in the ninth and Rowand capped the night with a sacrifice fly ... the Sox won the sixth AL pennant in franchise history.

2005 WORLD SERIES

GAME 1: WHITE SOX 5, ASTROS 3

Notes: In the first World Series game held in Chicago since 1959, the White Sox posted a 5-3 victory vs. Houston ... Jermaine Dye hit an opposite-field home run off Roger Clemens in the first inning ... the Sox added a pair of runs in the second on A.J. Pierzynski's RBI groundout and Juan Uribe's RBI double ... Lance Berkman evened the game with a two-run double in the third, but Joe Crede put the Sox ahead for good with a solo home run off Wandy Rodriguez in the fourth ... Houston put runners on first and third with no outs in the eighth, but Neal Cotts (two strikeouts) and Bobby Jenks (one strikeout) combined to end the Astros threat ... Clemens left after 2.0 IP with a sore left hamstring ... Jose Contreras, the sixth Cuban pitcher to ever start a World Series game, earned the victory despite tying a Fall Classic record by hitting three batters.

GAME 3: WHITE SOX 7, ASTROS 5 (14)

Notes: For the second straight game, an unlikely hero came to the forefront for the White Sox as Geoff Blum hit a solo home run in the 14th inning to break a 5-5 tie ... Blum, who had one prior postseason at-bat, entered the longest game in World Series history in the 13th and lined a 2-0 pitch over the right-field wall to give the Sox the lead ... Chicago added an insurance run on Chris Widger's bases-loaded walk ... Houston put runners on the corners in the 14th, but Game 2 starter Mark Buehrle came on to retire Adam Everett on a popout to shortstop Juan Uribe to end the game ... the Astros left the winning run at third base in the ninth and at second in the 10th and 11th ... Jon Garland allowed four runs in the first 4.0 IP but retired 12 of his last 13 batters faced ... Chicago overcame a 4-0 deficit by scoring five runs in the fifth off Roy Oswalt, highlighted by Joe Crede's solo homer and A.J. Pierzynski's two-run double that put the Sox ahead, 5-4 ... Jason Lane's double off Dustin Hermanson in the eighth tied the game at 5-5 ... the 43 players used by both teams was a World Series record, and it marked the first Series game played in Texas.

GAME 4: WHITE SOX 1, ASTROS 0

Notes: The White Sox captured their first World Series title since 1917 with a 1-0 victory over the Astros at Minute Maid Park ... Jermaine Dye, the eventual Most Valuable Player of the series, drove in the only run with an eighth-inning single off Brad Lidge that scored Willie Harris ... Harris led off the eighth with a single, moved to second on a sacrifice bunt by Scott Podsednik and to third on Carl Everett's ground out ... Bobby Jenks pitched a scoreless ninth inning for the save with help from Juan Uribe, who dove into the stands down the left-field line to record the second out of the final frame before retiring Orlando Palmeiro on a grounder to end the game ... starters Brandon Backe and Freddy Garcia each tossed 7.0 scoreless IP ... the Astros were 0-11 with runners in scoring position and were held without a run in the final 15 innings of the World Series ... Chicago went 11-1 in the postseason, tied for the second-best playoff record since 1969 (minimum seven games).

Follow The Leader

The White Sox set a major-league record by holding the lead in each of their first 37 games in 2005, breaking the previous mark of 25 straight held by the 1955 Brooklyn Dodgers. The Sox 37-game streak also tied for the third-longest ever in major-league history, trailing only the 1998 Yankees (48) and 1932 Yankees (40).

#Tied For League Lead

30/30/30/30 Club

The 2006 White Sox are one of four teams in major-league history to feature four players with 30 or more home runs in one season, joining the 2000 Anaheim Angels, 2000 Toronto Blue Jays and 2009 Philadelphia Phillies. Jermaine Dye (43), Jim Thome (42), Paul Konerko (35) and Joe Crede (30) each hit 30-plus homers for the Sox in 2006.

20/20/20/20/20 Vision

The White Sox featured a franchise record six players with 20 or more home runs in 2004. Paul Konerko hit a career-best 41 home runs, tied for the fourth-highest total in club history. Carlos Lee's 31 homers matched his career best (2003), while Jose Valentin (30), Aaron Rowand (24), Juan Uribe (23) and Joe Crede (21) each established personal bests.

The Big Hurt

With a .347 average in 1997, Frank Thomas became just the second player (third time) in White Sox history to win the American League batting title. Luke Appling won batting crowns for the Sox in 1936 (.388) and 1943 (.328). At 6-foot-5 and 275 pounds, Thomas also became the largest player ever to win a batting title. Dave Parker (1978-79) and John Olerud (1993) each were listed at 6-foot-5 when they led the league in average, while Miguel Cabrera (2012) was listed at 240 pounds.

CONFERENCE AND LEARNING CENTER

Since its opening in 2001, the Conference & Learning Center at Guaranteed Rate Field has been the site of hundreds of conferences and seminars, while also serving as a meeting location for civic and charity functions, and as the site for all White Sox press conferences and media events.

The facility, a joint partnership between Illinois Sports Facilities Authority and the White Sox, was designed by Campbell Tiu Campbell, Inc. and built by the joint venture of Walsh/Riteway. Audio/visual consultation and implementation was handled by Swiderski Electronics, Inc.

The CLC, which features the latest in communication and presentation technology, offers users full-service catering by Levy Restaurants and on-site parking. It is available year-round for half- and full-day rentals. In addition to Chicago Public School programs, the center is available for use by local non-profit organizations, businesses and community groups. Non-profit, civic and municipal organizations can use the CLC for reduced or no cost.

Beyond the entertainment provided by baseball's on-the-field activities, the facility allows ISFA and the Chicago White Sox to offer students unique educational opportunities that will allow them to benefit from the experience and knowledge of the organization, its staff and its supporters.

The CLC features a large amphitheater-style auditorium with a seating capacity of 130 and a meeting room that seats 60. The large auditorium features individual consoles at each seat, providing direct audio and data connections, an advanced overhead document display system and computer signal inputs for projection or plasma display.

CHAMPIONS PLAZA AND CHAMPIONSHIP MOMENTS

"Champions Plaza" and "Championship Moments" monument is a diamond-shaped plaza featuring a prominent bronze and granite monument celebrating the White Sox 2005 World Series championship.

The brick plaza, located at U.S. Cellular Field's main entrance, was unveiled during the 2008 season and is comprised of "legacy bricks" inscribed with personal messages from fans and features a historic timeline highlighting franchise milestones.

The large monument is made of a combination of white bronze and black granite and was designed by the same studio (The Fine Art Studio of Rotblatt-Amrany) that developed the popular sculptures of Charles Comiskey, Minnie Minoso, Carlton Fisk, Luis Aparicio, Nellie Fox, Billy Pierce, Harold Baines, Frank Thomas and Paul Konerko, which are located on the outfield concourse at U.S. Cellular Field.

As part of the 10-year anniversary of the 2005 World Series title, White Sox fans were again given the opportunity to purchase bricks on the plaza in support of Chicago White Sox Charities. Those bricks were installed in spring 2015.

WHITE SOX SCULPTURES

Paul Konerko became the ninth White Sox great immortalized in bronze at U.S. Cellular Field on September 27, 2014. Konerko retired following the 2014 campaign after an 18-year career (16 with the Sox). He is the White Sox all-time leader in total bases (4,010) and ranks second in homers (432), RBI (1,383) and games (2,268). Konerko, the White Sox captain from 2006-14, was a six-time All-Star and led the Sox to the 2005 World Series title. The "Paulie" sculpture joined those of club founder Charles Comiskey (2004), outfielder Minnie Minoso (2004), catcher Carlton Fisk (2005), the double-play combination of Luis Aparicio and Nellie Fox (2006), pitcher Billy Pierce (2007), outfielder/designated hitter Harold Baines (2008) and Frank Thomas (2011).

The one-of-a-kind site features unique grounds that include picturesque walking trails and immaculate landscaping. The teams' training grounds are separated by a flowing water feature that cuts across a five-acre lake.

- First home run: Gordon Beckham, White Sox, ninth inning, March 1, 2009.

Campus

- The Dodgers, White Sox and City of Glendale partnered to develop the distinctive complex that covers 141 acres, making CR-G the largest campus in the Cactus League.
- CR-G rests on land owned by the City of Glendale but within City of Phoenix limits. Glendale originally purchased the land to protect Glendale Municipal Airport from encroachment.
- The five-acre water feature (connected lake, river and pond) divides the campus into east (Dodgers) and west (White Sox) and provides irrigation for fields and landscaping plus aesthetic enhancement. It utilizes reclaimed water from the City of Glendale water treatment plant. The water system is "green." Its run-off returns to the natural water table under the dry bed of the Aqua Fria River to the west.
- Over 40,000 tons of sand, close to 10,000 tons of infield clay, more than 1,100 irrigation heads and 1.3 million square feet of Bermuda sod were used to build the stadium playing field, 12 practice diamonds and three practice infields.
- An orange grove, a touch of Dogbertown, southern California and Arizona, is located beyond the left-field wall of replica Dodger Stadium. Grapefruit and lemon trees also adorn the campus.
- Landscaping includes approximately 5,000 plants/trees.

CR-Glendale, the state-of-the-art spring training facility shared by the White Sox and Dodgers, opened in 2009.

■ Site work (mass excavation) began November 5, 2007. Building construction started in April, 2008. The complex was completed in approximately 13 months. More than 5,000 workers contributed to the effort. Local workers comprised 95-98 percent of the work force.

Stadium

- The stadium offers more than 10,300 fixed seats and grass seating for over 3,000 fans. There also are 4 large suites, 8 standard suites, 1 press box, 1 suite-level Legends Deck, and an outfield All-You-Can-Eat area that sits perched above the Dodgers bullpen.
- Architects (HKS, Dallas) designed CR-G with sweeps and angles to avoid a big-box look. Natural materials — real stone veneer, architectural metal panels ("rusty panels" or aged CORE 10) and three-tone faux painting — were used for external finishes to blend into the desert surroundings. Caramel-colored stadium seats and stone retaining walls further the natural look. The Gabion retaining walls of stone entrapped in wire mesh required five to 10 trucks per day to haul rock onto the site for months to provide material to build the walls.
- Most fans enter CR-G's stadium through the main gates in center field after walking through campus from the parking lots.
- Hitters' background in CF is framed by Afghan pine trees.
- The stadium playing field is 12 feet below grade, stadium seating is elevated 12 feet above grade and the surrounding stadium buildings are elevated around the main field for unobstructed views.
- Prior to the 2012 season, a shading project was completed that added an additional 800 shaded seats to the stadium.
- Prior to the 2015 season, the following improvements/additions were made: construction of the 5500-square-foot Four Peaks Patio down the first-base line, which includes a 360-degree bar, 3500 square feet of shade and food items; expanded center-field courtyard interactive zone with kid and family-friendly attractions; and retired White Sox & Dodgers numbers put on display in the stadium bullpens.

Team Facilities

- The Dodgers separate their major and minor leaguers in two buildings beyond the stadium's LF wall; one building beyond the RF wall combines Sox major and minor leaguers.
- The baseball buildings contain more than 118,000 square feet of major and minor league clubhouse space.
- Two of the 12 practice fields (four major league, eight minor league) replicate the Dodger and White Sox home ballparks with exact dimensions of Dodger Stadium and Guaranteed Rate Field, respectively. Three additional infields also were created.

WHITE SOX IN THE COMMUNITY

WHITE SOX VOLUNTEER CORPS

The White Sox established the first-of-its-kind Volunteer Corps in 2009. The concept behind the Volunteer Corps is to serve the Chicagoland area through community service projects by mobilizing fans, players and team personnel to take part and participate in these events. Since the program's inception, more than 9,400 fans, players, coaches and club executives have taken part in a service project, helping Chicagoans in need.

The Volunteer Corps has logged more than 41,000 hours of service and provided nearly $906,000 in labor (based on U.S. Department of Labor calculations).

Each year, members of the White Sox Volunteer Corps participate in a variety of service-focused events. From the renovation of local schools, to the construction of a new playground, to updating the Park District baseball fields near Guaranteed Rate Field, the members of the Volunteer Corps continuously lend a hand throughout the local community.

In September of 2012, the White Sox Volunteer Corps program was honored as a recipient of the Robert Wood Johnson Foundation's Steve Patterson Award for Excellence in Sports Philanthropy. The award celebrates and promotes those in sports who are improving the lives of others by leveraging the unique influence of sports. It was the second national award bestowed on the program, as the Corps also was recognized with the 2011 Commissioner's Award for Philanthropic Excellence, which was created to recognize outstanding community efforts by a Major League Baseball club.

WHITE SOX CHARITIES GRANT RECIPIENTS

Chicago White Sox Charities (CWSC) has donated more than $14.5 million to Chicagoland organizations over the past seven years, moving the team's not-for-profit arm beyond $25 million in cumulative giving since its inception. In 2016, CWSC awarded nearly $2 million in grants and other donations.

Donations in 2016 included $787,000 in grants to 29 Chicagoland non-profit organizations through the White Sox Community Fund, a McCormick Foundation Fund. In addition, CWSC awarded grants totaling $359,500 to 12 agencies, providing services throughout the community. The Chicago White Sox Community Fund is supported through a major grant from CWSC and matching funds provided by the Robert R. McCormick Foundation.

White Sox Charities also made donations totaling more than $860,000 to support White Sox urban youth baseball initiatives – including the Amateur City Elite (ACE) and RBI programs – and to fund non-profit organizations, such as Chicago Cares, Chicago Police Memorial Foundation and the Jackie Robinson Foundation.

RONALD McDONALD HOUSE

The Chicago White Sox officially formed a partnership with Ronald McDonald House in 2013, after many years of joint programming and support from the team.

Chicago White Sox Charities made a donation to the Ronald McDonald House near Ann & Robert H. Lurie Children's Hospital, and the partnership was celebrated with the dedication of the White Sox Family Field rooftop, a small-scale replica of U.S. Cellular Field on the roof of the facility in downtown Chicago.

Members of the White Sox organization, including chairman Jerry Reinsdorf, attended the dedication ceremony. In addition to the ribbon cutting, Sale threw the opening pitch to a four-year-old former Ronald McDonald House resident to christen White Sox Family Field. Once the opening ceremony was finished, Sox players spent the afternoon with children and families. Players toured the facility, while signing autographs.

Ronald McDonald House allows children who are receiving treatment to stay in a home-like atmosphere with their families. In addition to a dedicated bed and bathroom for each family, the Ronald McDonald House also features a community kitchen, family room, playroom and freshly prepared meals.

The White Sox Family Field rooftop at the Ronald McDonald House near Lurie provides a special play space for children who are staying there. The field also serves as an outlet for those to escape from the realities of life and enjoy playing baseball.

The Ronald McDonald House near Lurie is one of the largest locations in the world and one of five in the Chicagoland area. The House, which opened in June 2012, features 86 guest rooms, dedicated to assisting families of hospitalized children.

The ongoing relationship between the White Sox and Ronald McDonald House includes additional events, such as hosting families at U.S. Cellular Field, along with special player visits to the House and front office personnel preparing meal for guests at various Ronald McDonald House locations. Front office personnel also made ornaments and decorated a White Sox-themed Christmas tree at this location over the past three years.

As part of its annual Sox Serve Week in 2016, Jose Abreu and broadcaster Jason Benetti brought the ballpark atmosphere and a Home Run Derby to the Ronald McDonald House. In 2013 and 2014, CWSC and the White Sox Wives hosted a variety show called "Wild Pitches." White Sox players such as Nate Jones and Paul Konerko participated both years, along with their significant others and teammates. Proceeds from the event benefited CWSC and its support of Ronald McDonald House Charities of Chicagoland and North-west Indiana.

CHILDREN'S HOSPITALS

The Chicago White Sox and White Sox Charities regularly visit, work alongside and donate to two of the largest children's hospitals in the city. White Sox Charities donated over $1 million to the Ann & Robert H. Lurie Children's Hospital, the same facility where manager Rick Renteria and select players visited in January 2016.

White Sox personnel, including 2005 World Series MVP Jermaine Dye, also have made numerous visits to Comer Children's Hospital at the University of Chicago. In 2016, the organization brought the ballpark atmosphere to the hospital for White Sox Day as part of Childhood Cancer Awareness Month. White Sox infielder Tyler Saladino joined patients to deliver White Sox gifts and create art projects.

WHITE SOX ETHNIC INITIATIVES

ETHNIC COMMUNITY OUTREACH

The White Sox have a long, distinguished history of being one of the most active teams in Major League Baseball in both community outreach and partnership with the African-American and Latino communities. In 2016 alone, the White Sox spent more than 135 hours at various community events to engage with these multicultural communities.

This includes White Sox participation in community events, such as: El Día del Niño, presented by the National Museum of Mexican Art; Fiesta Back of the Yards, presented by the Back of the Yards Neighborhood Council; and the Bud Billiken Parade & Family Picnic in Washington Park, presented by Chicago Defender Charities.

The White Sox also hold events prior to home games such as Día de la Familia (Family Day), Orgullo Sox Night (Sox Pride Night) and Noche de la Herencia Hispana (Hispanic Heritage Night).

The Sox activity in the Latino and African-American communities is focused on partnering with and supporting organizations that promote youth academic and athletic programs.

In 2010, Chicago White Sox Charities donated $1 million to the Salvation Army Chicago Metropolitan Division to help build the Ray and Joan Kroc Corps Community Center in Chicago's West Pullman neighborhood. Today, the Kroc Center boasts a facility that includes baseball and softball diamonds, where the White Sox Amateur City Elite (ACE) youth baseball program plays and trains.

Since the inception of the ACE program – the club's showpiece youth baseball initiative – more than 130 athletes have received athletic aid to play collegiate baseball, with 70 competing at the NCAA Division I level and 18 drafted by professional teams.

The White Sox will host the 10th annual Double Duty Classic in 2017 at Guaranteed Rate Field, continuing their effort to grow the game and develop inner-city baseball talent.

Each year since 2008, the White Sox have brought together many of the best inner-city high school baseball players to play in the Double Duty Classic – an event celebrating the history and tradition of Negro Leagues baseball in Chicago and promoting the next generation of inner-city baseball players. The event is named after Negro League legend Ted "Double Duty" Radcliffe and commemorates the historic Negro Leagues All-Star game played at Old Comiskey Park. Players suit up in uniforms similar to those of the Negro Leagues and play a game at Guaranteed Rate Field, where they gain exposure to scouts.

In the past, players have attended a symposium prior to the game, where they learn about the original East-West game and have the opportunity to interact with dignitaries from Major League Baseball and the media. Past symposium participants include Tyrone Brooks, Sharon Robinson (daughter of Jackie Robinson), Scoop Jackson and Michael Wilbon of ESPN, ESPN MLB analyst and former White Sox outfielder and broadcaster Chris Singleton, Sox Hall-of-Famer Frank Thomas and the team's executive vice president Ken Williams.

White Sox Amateur City Elite (ACE) players gather for the club's annual signing day ceremony on November 16, 2016.

BASEBALL TERMINOLOGY

Disabled Lists

There are two disabled lists — the 15-day DL and the 60-day DL. Players on the 60-day DL do not count against a club's 40-man roster limit. Players may be placed on either disabled list starting with the day following the last day on which they appeared in a game and may be placed on the DL retroactively, up to a maximum of 10 days. While on the DL, players may be assigned to a minor league club for the purposes of an injury rehabilitation assignment for a maximum of 20 days (30 days for pitchers).

Options

When a player is on a club's 40-man roster and assigned to the minor leagues (except for while on an injury rehabilitation assignment), a player is on "optional assignment." In most cases, a player has three options, which means the player can be on optional assignment during three different seasons (under certain limited circumstances, some players may be eligible for a fourth option). Regardless of how many times a player is optioned and recalled during a single season, the player is only charged with one option during that season — that is, there is no limit on how many times a player may be optioned during a given option year. Once all of a player's options have been used, the player must clear irrevocable waivers before being sent to the minors at any subsequent point in their career.

Waivers

Fundamentally, waivers are permission from the other major league clubs for a requesting club to make a specific roster move. The type of waiver requested by a club depends upon the type of move the club wishes to undertake.

Option Waivers (Revocable): Required any time a club wishes to option a Player for whom at least three years has passed since that player made his major league debut. Option waivers are "revocable", which means if another club enters a claim on a Player, the requesting club may either (i) revoke the request and not make the contemplated roster move or (ii) allow the claiming club to receive the player in exchange for the waiver claim fee (either $20,000 or $25,000 depending upon the Player).

Trade Waivers (Revocable): Required any time a club wishes to assign a Player to another major league club following the July 31 non-waiver trade deadline and before the end of the regular season. Trade waivers are "revocable" which means if another club enters a claim on a Player, the requesting club may either (i) revoke the request and not make the contemplated roster move or (ii) allow the claiming club to receive the player in exchange for the waiver claim fee (either $20,000 or $25,000 depending upon the Player).

Unconditional Release Waivers (Irrevocable): Required any time a club wishes to release a player from his contract. The affected player is removed from the 40-man roster at the time of the request and may be claimed by any club willing to assume the player's contract for a $1.00 waiver claim fee. Unconditional release waivers are "irrevocable" which means should another club claim the player, the club who requested the waivers loses the player to the claiming club. If the player is unclaimed, the player becomes a free agent eligible to sign with any other club and the requesting club owes the player termination pay as mandated by the terms of the player's contract and/or the collective bargaining agreement.

Outright Waivers (Irrevocable): Required any time a club wishes to (i) assign a player to the minors who is out of options or (ii) remove a player from their 40-man roster. These waivers are "irrevocable" which means should another club claim the player, the club who requested the waiver loses the player to the claiming club. If the player is unclaimed, the requesting club may "outright" the affected player to the minors which removes the player from the club's 40-man roster and assigns the player's contract to a minor league affiliate. Under certain limited circumstances, a player who has been outrighted may declare free agency in lieu of accepting assignment to the minor league club.

Designated For Assignment

When the active roster limit and/or the 40-man roster limit of a particular club have been reached, and the club wishes to add an additional player to either the active or the 40-man roster, the club may designate for assignment a player currently on the 40-man roster. The club then has 10 days to either trade, outright to the minors or release the designated player. Once designated, the player no longer counts against the club's active or 40-man roster limits.

Recalled vs. Contract Purchased From Minor Leagues

If a player is on the 40-man roster, he is recalled. If not, then his contract is purchased from the minor-league team. A player must be added to the 40-man roster when his contract is purchased.

Rule 5 Draft

A player not on the major-league 40-man roster is eligible for the Rule 5 Draft if:

1. The player was 18 or younger when he first signed a pro contract and this is the fifth Rule 5 Draft since he signed.
2. He was 19 or older when he first signed a pro contract and this is the fourth Rule 5 Draft since he signed.

HOW TO FIGURE

Batting Average

Divide the number of at-bats into the number of hits (H/AB).

Earned Run Average

Multiply the number of earned runs by nine; take the number and divide it by the number of innings pitched (ERx9/IP)

Slugging Percentage

Divide the total bases of all safe hits by the total times at-bat. At-bats do not include walks, sacrifices, hit by pitcher or times awarded first base because of interference of obstruction (TB/AB).

On-Base Percentage

Add the total of hits, walks and hit by pitches and divide by the total of at-bats, walks, hit by pitches and sacrifice flies (H+BB+HBP/AB+BB+HBP+SF).

Fielding Percentage

Divide the total number of putouts and assists by total chances (putouts, assists and errors; PO+A/PO+A+E).

Magic Number

Determine the number of games yet to be played, add one, then subtract the number of games ahead in the loss column of the standings from the closest opponent.

MEDIA SERVICES

The Chicago White Sox Media Relations staff welcomes you to another season of White Sox baseball at Guaranteed Rate Field. Following are media guidelines for the 2017 season. Please feel free to contact any member of the Media Relations department with requests, questions or concerns at any point. We look forward to working with you throughout the 2017 season.

Credentials: Proper credentials must be displayed at all times. Credentials will be issued only to legitimate newsgathering agencies that have contacted the Media Relations department at least 24 hours in advance. Media credentials are to be picked up at the Gate 4 reception desk starting 4.5 hours prior to game time. Earlier credential pick up should be arranged in advance with the media relations office.

Please note: Transferral of working press credentials or autograph requests by working media will result in termination of privileges for the individuals involved. Also, all credentials must include a headshot.

Full-Season Credentials: Full-season credentials for all White Sox games at Guaranteed Rate Field are available to all accredited daily newspapers and area radio and television reporters who cover the Sox on a regular basis, as well as websites affiliated with an accredited newsgathering outlet. All requests should be submitted via credentials.mlb.com. For further information, contact Hannah Sundwall at 312-674-5300.

All full-season credentials require a photo. Photos may be submitted with the credential application on the MLB system. Full-season credentials will not be issued without photo I.D.

Daily Credentials: All other media outlets will be credentialed on a per-game basis. A credential application from an editor, sports director/producer or assignment editor should be submitted at least 24 hours in advance at credentials.mlb.com. All daily credentials must include a headshot and, per MLB guidelines, must be submitted to the online credential system. Media outlets will no longer be allowed to submit requests via phone or email.

Following the game, the White Sox clubhouse will open to the media no later than 10 minutes after the last out. The trainer's room, weight room, and players lounge are closed to the media. Media are asked not to lounge in the clubhouse or conduct full-length interviews after a game unless pre-arranged with the media relations office.

Boxscores, play-by-play reports and postgame notes are available in the Press Box after the game.

Television Minicam Crews: Television minicam trucks will be allowed to park at the rear of the ballpark near the Players Lot (corner of 35th St. and Wentworth Ave.). Crews parking in this area enter the stadium with their equipment via the loading dock. Security personnel may search vehicles and request identification from camera and truck crews. Access to the field is via first and third base photo boxes off the service tunnel. Access to photo boxes on the upper concourse is via the freight elevator in the left field corner of the stadium.

Per Major League Baseball guidelines, no game action may be shown during a live shot. Use of lights in the stadium during the game is prohibited. Proper credentials are necessary for access to the clubhouses. Following the game, interviews will not be allowed in or near the dugouts, without permission, until 10 minutes after the final out.
